

To Whom It May Concern:

I submit this letter of recommendation in support of Kiarash Jalali's potential as an intern. I have known Kiarash for six years, of which I was able to become more familiar with him while he clerked for me at my private practice, North Coast Medical Pharmacy. Overall, Kiarash is genuine when helping others and does so in a consistent, positive and professional matter.

Throughout my involvement and interaction with Kiarash, I found him to be reliable, responsible and motivated throughout his time at our company. In addition to Kiarash's perfect attendance and punctuality, he always maintained a pleasant and mild-mannered line of communication with our patients and other staff members.

Kiarash's motivation to learn as well as his willingness to work hard, qualify him as a valuable intern for any company. I highly support his ability and humbly recommend him to an internship in Portland. I am confident that he will become an outstanding member for future organizations. Please do not hesitate to contact me for any further questions concerning Kiarash.

Respectfully,

 8-8-16
